Hol 4 No 3

As you undoubtedly are aware, the usage of fingerprints in the civil identification field recently has evoked a great amount of interest. In an endeavor to afford service to persons interested in this activity, I am pleased to advise you that the Federal Bureau of Investigation now accepts for inclusion in its records the fingerprints of citizens who desire to place their fingerprints on file for personal identification purposes. A special fingerprint card bearing the designation "PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION" is furnished to law enforcement officers or citizens who desire blanks for this activity. When these fingerprints are received they are not searched against the criminal records, but are merely acknowledged, classified, and filed in a special section, separate from the criminal records.

It is believed by the Bureau that the establishment of this personal identification file will serve many purposes, as the potential uses of finger-prints in the commercial, civil and private field are most extensive. They are valuable in disputes involving identification, in disclosing the identity of individuals who are the victims of catastrophes, such as wrecks, casualties at sea or similar disasters, as well as establishing the identification of persons who may suffer from amnesia or loss of memory. It is felt that persons fearing kidnaping or attempted violence should record their fingerprints for potential identification purposes.

I am convinced that the recent concentrated interest evidenced in the civil identification field has played an important part in dispelling the popular disapproval of fingerprints which too long have been considered as a badge of criminality. I desire to bring to your attention, however, the fact that many citizens who have communicated directly with the Bureau for personal identification cards, have experienced difficulty in the taking of legible impressions. The suggestion is made to these citizens, therefore, that possibly they may wish to enlist the assistance of an identification officer in this activity and I am hopeful that the officials reading this announcement will lend their aid in this matter.

I trust you will not hesitate to communicate with me in the event the facilities of this Bureau may be of assistance to you in the solution of your own personal identification problems.

John Edgar Hoover

Director.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation receives numerous suggestions from law enforcement agencies which in the opinion of the said agencies would be conducive to improvement of existing identification systems. Among the suggestions which have been submitted is one to the effect that wherever arrangements can be devised, it would be helpful for arresting departments, as well as penal institutions, to take full length photographs of persons arrested or incarcerated.

The Bureau submits this suggestion for the consideration of interested officials. It is appreciated that the usual "police" photographs serve a valuable purpose for police identification. On the contrary, many persons contend that the full length photograph, giving as it does an entire view of the individual, frequently is of assistance, particularly to the layman, in "sight" identification. This suggestion is somewhat similar to that recently made that persons who have been incarcerated in penal institutions for prolonged periods be photographed before their discharge to assist in "sight" identification in the event such action would be necessary.

The Bureau offers this suggestion for the benefit of the interested agencies which have cooperated so splendidly in identification matters.

On page 2-A of the February issue of the "Fugitives Wanted by Police" bulletin there appeared an interesting identification relative to one Raymond Hamilton, who was apprehended at Provo, Utah on December 8, 1934. In order that there may be no misunderstanding, the Federal Bureau of Investigation desires at this time to bring to the attention of all law enforcement officials that the Raymond Hamilton referred to in the February 1935 issue of this bulletin is not identical with Raymond Hamilton the subject of Identification Order No. 1231. When the apprehension of Raymond Hamilton, subject of Identification Order No. 1231, is no longer desired all law enforcement officials will be duly notified by the issuance of an Apprehension Order.

ARTHUR STONE

UNIDENTIFIED DECEASED PERSON KILLED IN GUN BATTLE BY STATE TROOPER IDENTIFIED BY FINGERPRINTS AS BADLY WANTED ESCAPED CONVICT

A fingerprint card was received in the Identification Unit of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on January 18, 1935 from the Missouri State Highway Patrol at Sikeston, Missouri, containing information that the person whose finger impressions appeared on this card had been killed by a Missouri State trooper in a gun battle on January 16, 1935. A request accompanied this card that the Missouri authorities be notified by telegram if the finger-print files of the Bureau disclosed any record as to this person's identity.

Immediately on the receipt of the fingerprints of this deceased person they were searched against the files of the Identification Unit of the Bureau and they were found to be identical with the fingerprints of one Arthur Stone, who was an escaped convict from the Huntsville, Texas Penitentiary. This person had been received at that institution in April, 1934 to serve a term of 22 years for the crime of robbery and had escaped on September 20, 1934. Information of this escape was received in the Bureau on October 5, 1934 and a notice of his fugitive status was posted against his record in the files of the Identification Unit.

Within a few hours after the fingerprint card of this dead person was received in the Bureau advice as to his identity was transmitted by telegram to the Superintendent of the Missouri State Highway Patrol at Sikeston, Missouri. Moreover, the Texas authorities were notified that their escaped convict had been killed as indicated hereinbefore.

The above case is illustrative of the efficacy of the fingerprint science not only in connection with furnishing criminal records of persons under arrest, but also in establishing the identities of deceased persons whose identities might otherwise remain a mystery. This case is of particular significance inasmuch as it illustrates the advantages of the fingerprint science in connection with civil identification projects.

JOHN KNIGHT GILES FINGERPRINT DATA TRANSMITTED BY TELEGRAM INSTRUMENTAL IN IDENTIFYING ESCAPED LIFE TERMER

On the afternoon of February 16, 1935 a telegram was received in the Identification Unit of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from the Chief of Police at St. Paul, Minnesota, requesting that that official be notified immediately by telegram of any criminal record existing in the case of one John Knight Giles, who was being held by that Department. The communication from the St. Paul official set out the fingerprint classification of this individual. An immediate search was made of the files of the Identification Unit and it was found that the person under arrest at St. Paul was very probably identical with one John Knight Giles who was wanted as an escape from the State Penitentiary at Salem, Oregon, where he had been serving a life term on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of a deputy sheriff. Information of his fugitive status had been received in the Bureau from that institution on December 4, 1934. Accordingly, a telegram was dispatched at once to the St. Paul authorities, apprising them of this fact.

Two days following the telegraphic communications referred to above, a fingerprint card was received in the Identification Unit by air mail from the St. Paul Police Department, containing the finger impressions of the person referred to in the telegram from that Department. This card indicated that this person had been arrested on February 15, 1935 on a charge of general investigation. A comparison of the fingerprints of this individual with the fingerprints of the escaped prisoner from Oregon confirmed the identification of this person, and the authorities at St. Paul were furnished information of this fact. Likewise, the Oregon State Penitentiary officials were notified of Giles' arrest at St. Paul, Minnesota.

Although the Bureau strongly urges upon law enforcement officials the advisability and general necessity of transmitting fingerprints for the purpose of making identifications in the fingerprint files, it is apparent from the above case that where immediate action must be had worthwhile results can frequently be obtained by telegraphic requests for records if such requests set out sufficient data. In all such cases it is, of course, advisable to follow up the telegram by actually transmitting fingerprints. Furthermore, it is noted that distinctive items of descriptions with respect to persons under arrest, including, if possible, their finger-print classifications, should be forwarded in such cases.
